Dear Harold,

Hope you were not too badly hit by the storms.

Jaerstorm is really rabid, tasteless, and wrong.

Saw your out of context interview in The National Enquirer of 7/2. Of Lane was not misquoted, he has sunk to the level of Blakey.

I do not rule out the conspiracy possibility. On East McGovern is about pace - his complete abdication on income redistribution - his fiscal sources - the lack of corporate opposition - make him as an L.B.J. against Nixon - Goldwater. I hope this analysis is wrong.

Wallace may have been the real threat. Bremer's funds, his radio which could pick up police frequencies, his travels, notebooks and The F.B.I. closure of matters seems familiar.

I heard Turner and

Hinckle needed Eliot Asinof to do The Kaplow Book.

Peter Goldman, formerly of Newsweek, doing a study of The Malcolm X Assassination.

Those tapes were great.

Take care of yourself. What is new?

Sincerely,

E
